At a Meeting of Medical Practitioners interested in the formation of a new Medical Society held at Bowes Medical School, Australian Club, 10th June 1874,
I propose to the chair the following resolutions were proposed:

I. That a Society be formed to be called the South Australian Branch of the British Medical Association.

Seconded by S. Jordan.

II. The mode of action being taken to obtain legislation for the prevention of quackery.

Seconded by S. Jordan.

III. The motion of action being taken to obtain legislation for the prevention of quackery.

Seconded by S. Jordan.

IV. The motion of action being taken to obtain legislation for the prevention of quackery.

Seconded by S. Jordan.

V. That the objects of the Association are to promote the advancement of

Seconded by S. Jordan.